

Dario Foese

Dario is a second-year master student in Economics at HHU Düsseldorf, majoring in Competition and Regulation. In 2017, he graduated with the bachelor's degree in Economics and Political Sciences from the University of Cologne. To gain further academic and professional experiences, he spent a semester abroad with an included internship in Washington DC, USA. In addition to his academic education, Dario was trained as a reserve officer in the German Army, where he serves part-time as an officer in the airborne forces. Currently, he works at the Institute for Energy Economics at the University of Cologne. He is passionate about soccer, tennis, and running.

Johannes Klein-Peters

Johannes is a second-year master student in Business Administration at HHU Düsseldorf. Now majoring in Corporate Management, Johannes builds upon his Bachelor studies in International Management at the University of Applied Sciences Düsseldorf. Following his interest in different cultural systems, he spent one year in Australia and enriched his studies with a semester abroad in Norway. Apart from studying, Johannes deepened his communicative and analytic competences at the ERGO Insurance in the field of Marketing and currently, he works in the area of Corporate Strategy and M&A at Hüttenes-Albertus, a hidden champion in Düsseldorf. In his free time, he enjoys playing team sports, rocking the drum set, and exploring the world.

Laura Schäfer

Laura Schäfer is a second-year master student in Business Administration at HHU Düsseldorf. After earning her bachelor's degree at the University of Applied Sciences in Mönchengladbach in 2018, she worked as intern at the HQ of Volkswagen in Wolfsburg, Germany focussing on procurement and negotiations. She currently gains further practical experience through her working student employment in a consulting firm specialized in purchasing, supply chain management, and lean production. Laura loves to travel and is passionate about getting to know new cultures and people around the world. In her free time, she loves catching up with friends and doing sports.

Sven Wauschkuhn

Sven studies Business Administration at HHU Düsseldorf. He graduated from the University of Applied Sciences Düsseldorf with a bachelor's degree in International Management. During his bachelor program, he spent one semester at the California State University Fresno improving his intercultural skills. Through an internship at Audi, Sven gained working experience in Sales and Strategy. He currently is a working student in a business consultancy advising entrepreneurs and start-ups. Sven volunteers as a personal consultant of a displaced family from Syria. His favorite activities on a Sunday are playing soccer or spikeball, enjoying a Scorsese movie, or watching the NFL.

Kathleen Weymann

Kathleen is a second-year master student in Business Administration at HHU Düsseldorf. She focuses on management, sustainability, and finance. After earning her bachelor's degree in Business Administration in 2018, she did an internship in the field of sustainability audit in Frankfurt. Currently, she gains further practical experience through her working student employment in sustainability consulting. In her free time, she enjoys sports, drawing, or being outdoors in nature.

Coaches

Rüdiger Hahn, Lena Schätzlein, Hagen Jander