

MBA-ICC Team Düsseldorf 2013

From left to right:

Magnus Fleig, Christine Wagner, Dipl.-Kfm. Bastian Hauschild, Timon Seidlitz,
Michael Kankam, Lina Sinkwitz, Dr. Regina Lülfs, Prof. Dr. Rüdiger Hahn

Magnus Fleig

Magnus is a graduate student at the Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf, specializing in Sustainability Management, Organizational Behavior & Leadership and Entrepreneurial Management. In 2011, he earned his bachelor degree from the Universität Hohenheim. Magnus gained practical experience during two internships in the automotive industry, including a six month full-time experience at Mercedes-Benz China. In addition, he has worked for more than two years as a freelancer in an internet marketing agency near Stuttgart. In his free time he likes travelling and doing sports.

Michael Kankam

Michael is a first-year master student at the Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf, doing a double major in Business and Chemistry. The prospective business-chemist specializes in Marketing as well as Macromolecular Chemistry. During a semester abroad at Griffith University in Australia, he additionally focused on Sustainability Management and Management Consulting. Michael gained practical experience during an internship in the field of Strategic Business Development and as a working student in the Marketing area. In his leisure time, he is passionate about soccer, design and music.

Timon Seidlitz

Timon is a graduate student at the Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf, majoring in Accounting and Finance. He has two years of working experience in a non-profit organization in New York City. Through internships he gained further practical experience in Controlling and Assurance. Currently he is working as a student trainee for PricewaterhouseCoopers. In his spare time he volunteers as a team leader of „Jogibär“, a Christian non-profit Organization for underprivileged Children in Düsseldorf.

Lina Sinkwitz

Lina is a second year master student at the Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf, majoring in Marketing, HR, and Organizational Management. She graduated with a bachelor degree in Business Administration from the TU Dortmund University. Before starting her Master's degree in Düsseldorf, Lina was able to gain practical experience in the field of HR during an internship in Bangkok, Thailand. From an early stage she was able to enrich her language and intercultural skills starting with a high-school year in the US continuing with a semester abroad in the south of France. Besides her studies Lina works as a student part-timer for McKinsey & Company in the international ITS recruiting team. Lina is very passionate about skiing and in her free time she enjoys swimming, reading, film, and photography.

Christine Wagner

Christine is a second year master student at the Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf, specializing in Sustainability Management, Marketing and Controlling & Auditing. Christine gained practical experience in sustainability, retailing and event management. Moreover she worked as research assistant at the department of Sustainability and Corporate Responsibility at the university. As a member of the board of a student association, she actively participates in university life. In her free time she likes travelling, reading and Badminton. Currently she studies Spanish.

Coaches

Rüdiger Hahn

Rüdiger was part of the top-ranked Team Düsseldorf at the 2005 MBA-ICC and he has been coaching the following teams ever since. He holds a PhD from the Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf and is now an Associate Professor in Management at the Universität Kassel, Germany. His research interests include Sustainability Management and Corporate Responsibility with a focus on International and Strategic Management. In addition to his university education and career, he worked for two years in an advertising agency and on a project for an NGO in India. Since this time he is also an interested amateur photographer and intrigued traveller of developing countries.

Prof. Dr. Rüdiger Hahn
ruediger.hahn@uni-kassel.de

Regina Lülfs

Regina was a member of Team Düsseldorf in the 26th MBA ICC 2007. In 2010 she led the team from the Nanyang Business School (Singapore) to the finals of the 29th MBA ICC as a coach. Regina holds a PhD from the Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf. Her research focuses on corporate sustainability, organizational behavior and organizational learning. During her studies at the universities of Paderborn and Düsseldorf (Germany) and Alicante (Spain) she focused on Environmental and Sustainability Management, Business Psychology and Organization Theory. Regina loves travelling to developing countries and is passionate about dancing.

Dr. Regina Lülfs
regina.luelfs@hhu.de

Bastian Hauschild

Bastian is a PhD candidate in Finance at the Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf. He was member of Team Düsseldorf in the 27th MBA ICC 2008. His research interest is in Corporate Venturing, Venture Capital and (Real) Option Pricing. He just returned from a six-month research stay at the Columbia Business School. During his graduate studies which included a term abroad at UC Davis, Bastian focused on Financial Markets, Management Accounting and Finance. He gained practical experience in several internships in Banking and Auditing. In his free time, Bastian likes to travel especially to developing countries.

Bastian Hauschild
bastian.hauschild@hhu.de